ABSTRACT:

A method to trade objects over a network is described. A first order for an object having at least four dimensions associated with the object is received. A memory is searched for a second order with an object having at least four dimensions. The first 5   order is matched with the second order in accordance with the search.

Attorney Docket Number: 051672/5001

1-WA/1518742 5